

Sneaky Snake

Sneaky Snake lived in the sand. He was the same color as sand, so he was very hard to see. When kids came to the beach to play in the sand, he'd tease them saying, "Sss, sss, says the snake, sitting in the sand. Sss, sss, says the snake, find me if you can." The kids could hear the "sss, sss" but they couldn't see the snake. Some of the small children were scared.

Sam was a big kid and he wasn't scared of snakes. He sat in the sand playing. He had something with him to scare the snake. When Sneaky Snake said, "Sss, sss, says the snake, sitting in the sand. Sss, sss, says the snake, find me if you can," Sam got out his squirt gun and sprayed water where he heard the sound coming from.

Sneaky Snake didn't like being wet. He slid to a new spot on the beach and didn't scare the kids again.
