

Kung Fu Koala

The Koala family lived in a eucalyptus tree in Australia. They were a very shy family, and they were afraid of the other animals in the outback. When a kangaroo went hopping by, they'd hide. The youngest koala in the family didn't like to hide from the animals. "We were here first. We shouldn't have to hide when animals come close to us."

So the little koala decided to study kung fu to protect his family from danger. He soon discovered that studying kung fu was hard work. It was a lot of exercise, but the little koala really liked it. He liked to kick from side to side. He liked to practice kung fu. He didn't want to hurt anyone, but the other animals would stay away from their tree when they saw him practicing his kung fu moves.

The Koala family was still shy, but they felt safer when Kung Fu Koala was with them, and they didn't hide from the kangaroos anymore.
